European Proceedings of Social and Behavioural Sciences (EpSBS) is an open access, peer-reviewed and refereed series. The main objective of the EpSBS is to promote interdisciplinary studies in social and behavioural sciences by providing a platform for international scholars to disseminate their work.

Topics include but are not limited to anthropology, archaeology, psychology, sociology, philosophy, interdisciplinary humanities, economics, political science and additional entries in related fields, including education, legal studies, environmental studies and media studies. The series also welcomes works highlighting the connection between human activities and social interactions.

The EpSBS publishes theoretical, experimental or application-based works with the objective of contributing to a greater understanding and development of social and behavioural sciences. EpSBS publishes either monographs for example, master thesis/doctoral dissertations or edited volumes based on the outcomes of conferences.

Once published, all proceedings are submitted for evaluation and possible coverage in Web of Science Core Collection™ Conference Proceedings Citation Index - Social Sciences & Humanities (CPCI-SSH).

Preface

The volume contains proceedings of the International Forum «Freedom and responsibility in pivotal times» (FaR 2021), 19-23 April 2021, Linguistics University of Nizhny Novgorod, Nizhny Novgorod, Russia.

The objective of the conference is to establish an academic discussion on cultural and social problems relevant for ethnic, professional, and social communities in Russia and surrounding states. The event is supposed to be dedicated to the discussions, opinions and reports concerning cultural, legal, historical, and political aspects of social transformations altering local communities and affecting global trends.

The topic of the conference is important not only from the academic view point. It actually helps to understand the political and social processes taking place in the world. Globalization is the key feature distinguishing our times in the historical process. The global transformations affect local communities in various and unpredictable ways. Global economic trends affect the everyday and professional life of people. Modern social media alters the way people communicate and interferes with the traditional relations and religious worldview. Social mobility makes cultural and identity preservation more difficult than ever before. All this makes globalization a very important object for thorough study.

FaR 2021 featured keynote speeches, workshops and plenary sessions by renowned and skilled researchers and international scholars from Russia and Kyrgyzstan, Armenia, Great Britain, Poland, Hungary, Belarus, India. The main thematic sessions of the event were: 1. Humanism and current trends in the development of civilization; 2. Transformation of values in crisis and transition epochs; 3. Social transformations in the space of national security geopolitics; 4. New forms of legal awareness and prospects for the development of civil society in the information age; 5. Communication technologies in a digital society; 6. Modern media space: challenges of the digital age; 7. Dynamics of public consciousness in the cultural and historical space; 8. The role of the teacher in a changing World; 9. High technologies and transformations of socio-economic systems; 10. Political discourses in critical epochs. All presentations were limited up to 12 minutes followed by up to 5 minutes on discussion, 3 minutes on debates. Five best paper awards were introduced for the following reports:

- Digital Formats for the Development of Public Consciousness in the XXI Century - Gulmira Dzhunushalieva
- Education in a Mediatized Society - Olga Savinova
- On the issue of the American Media Space in the Modern Digital Era - Olga Verbitskaya
- Transformation of Religious Consciousness in Modern Belarus: Main Trends and Contradictions - Viktor Odinochenko
- Transformations of Public Perception of COVID-19 in Modern Europe - Olga Shimanskaya

Peer review process was managed without the use of any specialized software. All peer review correspondence were handled via email. Web service Antiplagiat.ru was applied to detect the plagiarism at the initial check. All papers that were previously published, non-original or not relevant to the scope were declined.

Each submission was subjected to a single-blind review process by two reviewers. The number of submissions received was 235 and number of submissions sent for review was 221 and the number of submissions accepted was 155 indicating an acceptance rate of 66%. A total of 30 reviewers including 5 external reviewers were involved in the review process.

Thank you message to all contributors, speakers, participants, sponsors etc. We would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to all attendees, contributors for all their great scientific input and for many fruitful discussions and interaction. We also want to honor almost one hundred reviewers for their time and effort contributed to make this volume published. Special thanks goes to editors, chairs and their assistants for tremendous work they have done on handling the correspondence, coordinating peer-review process, proof-reading and copy-editing papers.
