European Proceedings of Social and Behavioural Sciences (EpSBS) is an open access, peer-reviewed and refereed series. The main objective of EpSBS is to provide an intellectual platform for the international scholars. EpSBS aims to promote interdisciplinary studies in social and behavioural sciences and become the leading series in social and behavioural sciences in the world.

Topics include anthropology, archaeology, psychology, sociology, philosophy, interdisciplinary humanities, economics, political science and additional entries in related fields, including education, environmental studies and media. The series also welcomes works showing connections between human activities and social interactions.

The EpSBS publishes theoretical, experimental or application-based works with the objective of contributing to a greater understanding and development of social and behavioural sciences. EpSBS publishes either monographs for example, master thesis/doctoral dissertations or edited volumes based on the outcomes of conferences.

Once published, all proceedings are submitted for evaluation and possible coverage in Web of Science Core Collection™ Conference Proceedings Citation Index - Social Sciences & Humanities (CPCI-SSH).

Preface

The volume contains selected, refereed papers submitted for the International Scientific Congress «Knowledge, Man and Civilization» (ISCKMC 2022), which was held on June 8–10, 2022, at Complex Scientific Research Institute of the Russian Academy of Sciences, Grozny, Russia.

The objective of conference is to establish an academic discussion on cultural and social problems relevant to ethnic, professional, and social communities in Russia and surrounding states. The event is supposed to be dedicated to the discussions, opinions, and reports concerning cultural, legal, historical, and political aspects of social transformations altering local communities and affecting global trends.

International Scientific Congress “Knowledge, Man and Civilization” (ISCKMC 2022) is an interdisciplinary discussion platform, which brings together both teachers and researchers. This conference is attended by specialists in social policy, history and environmental protection, public figures, and representatives of state authorities. The geography of the participants covers various regions of Russia and the EAEU countries, as well as Asia and Western Europe. 4 key notes speeches were made by the local distinguished scientists. Two plenary sessions were organized: North-Caucasus in the Global World, Novel Trends in Intercultural Intergration. Each session was comprised of 6 reports. Several workshops were organized. In the course of the meetings, participant had an opportunity to learn more about the North Caucasus, it’s culture, people and history. Thematics sessions were organized as follows: 1) Academia's contribution to economic development; 2) Cross-cultural communications and global integration in the academic environment; 3) Methodological and philosophical issues of academic science; 4) Science as a social enterprise; 5) Educational mission of the academic community; 6) Cultural and historical legacy preservation as a mission of the academic community; 7) Multidisciplinary scientific approaches to local and global challenges; 8) Science, religion and art in cultural discourse; 9) Interrelation between humanities, engineering, social and natural sciences; 10) Scientific worldview and philosophical worldview; 11) Scientific personnel training and certification; 12) Administrative and technological measures to support scientific progress; 13) Scientometrics and management in science; 14) Global political, social, and environmental factors affecting scientific progress; 15) Scientific approaches to achieving global stability.

No specific conference management system were used. All the correspondence were handled via email. 210 abstracts and registration proposals received. 190 papers accepted. 150 papers presented. Each presenter allowed up to 10 minutes on presentation, up to 5 minutes on discussion, 3 minutes on debates. Participants’ countries were Russia, Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Turkey. Peer review process was managed without use of any specialized software. Web service Antiplagiat.ru was used to detect plagiarism. All papers were subjected through single-blind peer review process by two reviewers. The number of submissions received and reviewed was 210 and 190 qualified submissions were submitted to peer review. 170 manuscripts were accepted indicating an acceptance rate of 80%. Total 25 peers involved in the review process. 14 out of 25 reviewers were invited from the outside of the committee. Reviewers had to answer the following questions: 1) Does the contribution fit the scope? 2) Does the contribution feature original research? 3) Are the results and conclusions adequate? 4) Does the presentation style meet academic standards?

We would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to all attendees, contributors for all their great scientific input and for many fruitful discussions and interaction. We also want to honor almost one hundred reviewers for their time and effort contributed to make this volume published. Special thanks goes to editors, chairs and their assistants for tremendous work they done on handling the correspondence, coordinating peer-review process, proof-reading and copy-editing papers.
