European Proceedings of Social and Behavioural Sciences (EpSBS) is an open access, peer-reviewed and refereed series. The main objective of the EpSBS is to promote interdisciplinary studies in social and behavioural sciences by providing a platform for international scholars to disseminate their work.

Topics include but are not limited to anthropology, archaeology, psychology, sociology, philosophy, interdisciplinary humanities, economics, political science and additional entries in related fields, including education, legal studies, environmental studies and media studies. The series also welcomes works highlighting the connection between human activities and social interactions.

The EpSBS publishes theoretical, experimental or application-based works with the objective of contributing to a greater understanding and development of social and behavioural sciences. EpSBS publishes either monographs for example, master thesis/doctoral dissertations or edited volumes based on the outcomes of conferences.

Once published, all proceedings are submitted for evaluation and possible coverage in Web of Science Core Collection™ Conference Proceedings Citation Index - Social Sciences & Humanities (CPCI-SSH).

Preface

This volume contains selected, peer reviewed papers from the Social and Cultural Transformations in the Context of Modern Globalism (SCTCMG 2019) which was held on June 14-15, 2019, in Grozny, Russia.

The objective of the conference was to establish an academic discussion on cultural and social problems relevant for ethnic, professional, and social communities in Russia and surrounding states. The event was supposed to be dedicated to the discussions, opinions and reports concerning cultural, legal, historical, and political aspects of social transformations altering local communities and affecting global trends.

The International Conference “Social and Cultural Transformations in the Context of Modern Globalism” (SCTCMG 2019) is an interdisciplinary discussion platform, which brings together both teachers and researchers. This conference was attended by specialists in the field of social policy, history and environmental protection, public figures and representatives of state authorities. The geography of the participants covered various regions of Russia and the EAEU countries, as well as Asia and Western Europe.

The mission of the Conference was a deep and comprehensive scientific understanding of the concepts of fundamental knowledge about nature, human and civilization. In the conference reports, there was a discussion of fundamental and applied knowledge about social change in the modern world. The event gathered a large number of reports, which included the following fundamental scientific issues:

- social potential of history and experience of Russian and World transformations;
- study of the evolution of human, societies and civilizations: man in history and the history of everyday life;
- historical, cultural and state development of Russia and its place in historical and cultural process of the world;
- Russia and the Slavic world;
- ethnogenesis, ethnocultural image of peoples, modern ethnic processes;
- historical and cultural interaction of Eurasia;
- preservation and study of archaeological, cultural and scientific heritage and aesthetic values of domestic and world literature and folklore in modern understanding; spiritual and aesthetic values of domestic and world literature and folklore in modern understanding;
- fundamental research of the theory, structure and historical development of languages of the world; political relations in Russian society: power, democracy, personality;
- transformation of the social structure of Russian society; strengthening of Russian statehood, including federal relations;
- technological development of Russia: state, conditions, prospects;
- scientific foundations of the concept of the socio-economic strategy of the Russian Federation;
- issues of human potential development;
- potential of the Russian Federation and problems of reproduction of national wealth.

This large list of the discussed issues combines into 8 sections and 5 round tables. The sections are the following:

- Civilizational and cultural processes in the context of modern globalization: from conflicts to cooperation
- Modern economy: regional and global aspects

- Ethnic and religious confrontation in the world: state, causes and ways of overcoming. Separatist and extremist manifestations
- East and West: migration, multiculturalism, humanism. Russia and the West: cultural and technological interactions
- Socio-political transformations in globalization conditions: regional manifestations
- Peculiarities of civil identity formation in Russia
- State development of the peoples of the Caucasus, their place in the world and cultural processes. Ethnopolitical processes in the North Caucasus: the state, the main contradictions and ways of stabilization
- Local issues of linguistics and literary studies

The conference organizers also provided an excursion program. The participants visited the sight of the Chechen Republic - the Ushkaloy Towers. The final stage was the Gala-diner, where the results of the conference were summed up and the authors of the best reports were awarded.

4 keynote speeches were made by the local distinguished scientists. Two plenary sessions were organized: North-Caucasus in the Global World, Novel Trends in Intercultural Integration. Each consisted of 6 reports. Several workshops were organized. In the course of the meetings, participants had an opportunity to learn more about the North Caucasus, its culture, people and history.

Thematics sessions were organized as follows:

- 1 - Civilizational and cultural processes in the context of modern globalization: from conflicts to cooperation
- 2 - Modern economy: regional and global aspects
- 3 - Ethnic and religious confrontation in the world: state, causes and ways of overcoming. Separatist and extremist manifestations
- 4 - East and West: migration, multiculturalism, humanism. Russia and the West: cultural and technological interactions
- 5 - Socio-political transformations in globalization conditions: regional manifestations
- 6 - Peculiarities of civil identity formation in Russia
- 7 - State development of the peoples of the Caucasus, their place in the world and cultural processes. Ethnopolitical processes in the North Caucasus: the state, the main contradictions and ways of stabilization
- 8 - Focal problems of linguistics and literary studies

No specific conference management system was used. All the correspondence was handled via email. In total, 689 abstracts and registration proposals were received. 503 papers were accepted and 503 were presented at the conference. Each author was allotted up to 10 minutes on presentation, up to 5 minutes on discussion, 3 minutes on debates to present their paper. The review process for the papers was stringent. Web service Antiplagiat.ru was used to detect plagiarism. Peer review process was managed without use of any specialized software. Single-blind peer review process was applied. 653 submissions were received. 617 qualified submissions were submitted for peer review. 108 manuscripts were accepted as is, 395 manuscripts were accepted after revision indicating an acceptance rate of 73 %. A total of 74 reviewers were involved in the review process. The average number of reviews per paper is 2. The 62 out of 74 reviewers were invited from the outside of the committee. Lastly, Reviewers had to answer to the following questions:

1. Does the contribution fit the scope?
2. Does the contribution feature original research?
3. Are the results and conclusions adequate?
4. Does the presentation style meet academic standards?

Thank you message to all contributors, speakers, participants, sponsors etc. We would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to all attendees, contributors for all their great scientific input and for many fruitful discussions and interaction. We also want to honor almost one hundred reviewers for their time and effort contributed to make this volume published. Special thanks goes to editors, chairs and their assistants for tremendous work they have done on handling the correspondence, coordinating peer review process, proof-reading and copy-editing papers.
