European Proceedings of Social and Behavioural Sciences (EpSBS) is an open access, peer-reviewed and refereed series. The main objective of the EpSBS is to promote interdisciplinary studies in social and behavioural sciences by providing a platform for international scholars to disseminate their work.

Topics include but are not limited to anthropology, archaeology, psychology, sociology, philosophy, interdisciplinary humanities, economics, political science and additional entries in related fields, including education, legal studies, environmental studies and media studies. The series also welcomes works highlighting the connection between human activities and social interactions.

The EpSBS publishes theoretical, experimental or application-based works with the objective of contributing to a greater understanding and development of social and behavioural sciences. EpSBS publishes either monographs for example, master thesis/doctoral dissertations or edited volumes based on the outcomes of conferences.

Once published, all proceedings are submitted for evaluation and possible coverage in Web of Science Core Collection™ Conference Proceedings Citation Index - Social Sciences & Humanities (CPCI-SSH).

Preface

On behalf of the organizing committee, we are pleased to present the proceedings containing selected, peer reviewed papers from the OPIICS 2019 International Conference (OPIICS 2019) on the theme of “Psychology, Sociology, Education and Social Sciences” which was held in September, 26th, 27th and 28th 2019, in Zaragoza, Spain. The OPIICS 2019 International Conference the theme of Psychology, Sociology, Education and Social Sciences.” Bringing together each year, scholars around the world to share research and best practices in its areas of focus, the conference in 2019 opened up its horizons to related disciplines.

The main aim of the conference was to provide a forum for the discussion and dissemination of the latest research and best practices in the area of social sciences, education and psychology, also, to discuss and share the theoretical-instrumental and technical-practical advances made by researchers and professionals in this area, reflect on the main problems that exist today in the Social Sciences and show the research and work carried out or in progress on the contributions of the Social Sciences to knowledge. More information on conference is available at http://www.unizar.es/actualidad/vernoticia_ng.php?id=48653&idh=.

The conference itinerary comprised keynote speeches, plenary sessions, and workshops which covered thematic sections. 48 papers were accepted, and 35 papers were presented at the conference. Each author was allowed 15 minutes to present their paper. The conference’s international was provided by participants who came from Spain, Ecuador, Mexico, Chile and France. The review process for the papers was stringent. The software program Unicheck was used for plagiarism detection. Each submission was subjected to a double-blind review process by two reviewers. The number of submissions received and reviewed was 54 and the number of submissions accepted was 35 indicating an acceptance rate of 66%. A total of 54 reviewers were involved in the review process.

The OPIICS 2019 International Conference was hosted by Zaragoza University, Zaragoza Spain, and organized by Zaragoza University’s Education Faculty, in collaboration with OPIICS. The conference chair and co-chairs express their sincere appreciation to all the organizing institutions. Special thanks are due to the two riveting keynote speakers, Professor Diego Gutiérrez (University of Zaragoza, Spain), Marian Rojas (Psychiatrist and writer), Professor José Ramón Gamo (Neuropsychologist and teacher).
