European Proceedings of Social and Behavioural Sciences (EpSBS) is an open access, peer-reviewed and refereed series. The main objective of the EpSBS is to promote interdisciplinary studies in social and behavioural sciences by providing a platform for international scholars to disseminate their work.

Topics include but are not limited to anthropology, archaeology, psychology, sociology, philosophy, interdisciplinary humanities, economics, political science and additional entries in related fields, including education, legal studies, environmental studies and media studies. The series also welcomes works highlighting the connection between human activities and social interactions.

The EpSBS publishes theoretical, experimental or application-based works with the objective of contributing to a greater understanding and development of social and behavioural sciences. EpSBS publishes either monographs for example, master thesis/doctoral dissertations or edited volumes based on the outcomes of conferences.

Once published, all proceedings are submitted for evaluation and possible coverage in Web of Science Core Collection™ Conference Proceedings Citation Index - Social Sciences & Humanities (CPCI-SSH).

Preface

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to present the proceedings of the International Conference on Finance, Entrepreneurship and Technologies in Digital Economy (FETDE 2020), which took place on June 18-19, 2020 in remote participation format (Online Conference, Zoom).

The objective of the conference is to bring together leading scientists and young professionals from around the world to discuss the transformation of the business and financial sectors in the digital economy.

Importance of the conference lies in the fact that it is organized by Business Communication Center s.r.o. (Prague, Czech Republic) in cooperation with St. Petersburg University of Management Technologies and Economics (St. Petersburg, Russia), which makes it possible to compare approaches to the study of the topics raised in Europe and Russia, and to find common problem areas and approaches to their solution.

The conference faced the challenges of the spring 2020 pandemic, but we successfully held our event online and are happy to share its results with you: we held a plenary session with discussions on keynote speeches and the following thematic sections: Development of financial relations in digital economy; Cybersecurity and technologies in digital economy; Entrepreneurship and business models; Organizational and Entrepreneurial Behavior, Behavioral Finance. The main topics of the conference include key aspects of the development of the digital economy: trends in the development of digital technologies and their impact on human living conditions, digitalization of public administration and science, the transformation of the labor market, business and the demand for personnel competencies.

We have received 102 works via EasyChair submission system and conducted a full review of each manuscript that relied on three experts, and the review itself was double blind. As a result, 81 articles were accepted for publication, so acceptance rate was 79,4%.

We thank all keynote speakers, the scientific and organizing committees' members and of course the participants who trusted us and submitted their articles.
